When we arrive to the school the bell rings to go to class, in class of English Mrs. Lulu the teacher does a pop quiz of adjectives, when we were doing the quiz Ade and Me were sharpening the pencil . The sky was black, Mrs. Lulu was hanging upside down, to all the girls appeared a seat belt except for Ade and me that were sharpening the pencil, we pretend to have. In one moment a lightening fell and appeared the horrible nightmare of one of each girl. When they were looking to the board Ade and me ron out of the room to call the eliminator of nightmares, they came to school, when they entered to class the nightmare catchers theme, we took the extincor and threw to the nightmare and the nightmare disappeared in the newspaper. That day we slept dreaming what adventures were we going to have other day.
