How can I fly?

One day in a forest, in the middle of a branch Little Ladybug was born she was alone, with no mom.

She didn't know how to fly so she climbed down the tree and found a frog and she ask him, "Do you know how to fly?" The frog said oh! sorry I don't know I only know how to jump! "Ok said poor baby Ladybug."

She continued walking and found a woman and climbed up her body and sat on her ear and she asked and asked, "Do you know how to fly?" But the woman didn't hear her so she climbed down the woman body and continued walking.

She found a snake and she asked "Do you know how to fly?"

"No, sorry beautiful Ladybug I only know how to slither on the muddy ground".

"Ok, thank you Mr. Snake."

She continued walking and found a yellow bird and she asked "Do you know how to fly?" Yes, I know but I will not teach you. You are so lucky Ladybug because I will not eat you. I just remember I just ate but I will only tell you that there is a bee in the middle of the forest that is who teaches animals how to fly, "thanks".

She walked and walked for many days and finally she arrived in the middle of the forest and found the Bee.

The Bee asked "Are you here for my lessons?" "Yes, I am here for your lessons" answered Ladybug.

"Ok, so let's start".

First, you can try on a little leave. "But how do you do it?" asked the Ladybug. "You just have to move your wings as fast as you can, Ok?"

Ladybug moved her wings fast, fast, fast and she did it! She never felt so happy before.

The Bee said "You did it so now you should try from a higher place". Ok, I will try" said Ladybug. She climbed a fallen tree. She felt a little nervous but she knew she could do it.

She climbed until she got to the top. She started moving her wings faster and faster and she did it but this time she didn't land well, this time she fell and hit a worm that was passing by.

Then she told the worm that she was sorry. The Bee said, "you did it but don't worry about your landing". "We will work on your landing later". "Ok answer Lady bug". The Bee said to Lady bug "why don't you try from the branch of the tree?" "Ok, but this is the last level".

She climbed up the tree and went to the highest branch and breathed, she was afraid but she breathes and breathes until she was ready.

She moved her wings as fast as she could and she! Flew! She saw a group of Ladybugs passing by and she wanted to be with someone so she flew and joined them. But do you know who she found? She found her mother. Her mother shouted when saw Ladybug, she screamed: "My baby? Ladybug, you are here!"

"Mommy? Mommy?" Shouted Lady bug.

She lived many years with that group of ladybugs and especially with her mom.
