MY BANANA GOT CRAZY

Susana Jaramillo Trujillo 3ºA

One day I was eating a banana and before it was in my mouth the banana jumped over me! The banana went to the bathroom so I went there but when I went there I didn't see it. I looked into the window and I saw the banana going to the supermarket so I went there and when I went in, I saw the banana in the clothes section. I went to the clothes section and I saw the banana with some jeans and a shirt. When the banana saw me, it went running out of the supermarket so I ran after it.

The banana went to the school and went in the classroom and a boy said: a banalien! (It means a banana - alien) so the banana went running to the library and got a book called "How to freeze a human". I went to hide and saw the banana coming out of the library and going to the park. It went down the slide, up and down the swing. I tried to catch the banana but it went running to the airport, and there, it was running everywhere.

The banana went to a person that was selling coffee and got one, and then it took an airplane to the desert. In the desert, the banana took a camel and me too. It went to an oasis and then it went to Antarctica so I took a sweater and I went there. When we got there, it was easy because the banana didn't have a sweater so it froze and I went to my house and ate the banana.
