WHAT HAPPENED?

Carolina Jaramillo Escobar (6^oA)

I woke up and I was in the hospital. I didn't know what was happening but then I fainted. The hours passed and I eventually woke up, but I still didn't have any idea of what was happening. I felt weak so I couldn't move but then my mom came and told me, "Hello my darling, how are you feeling?"

"Fine, Mom, but why I am in the hospital?" I asked her.

"You had a car accident and that's why you are here," she said.

"Was someone with me?" I asked.

"Yes," she answered.

"Who?" I asked

"....."and she didn't answer.

"Mom, please tell me who," I said again.

"Your girlfriend," she answered.

"And how is she?" I asked.

"Let's talk about other thing," she said.

"Mom, please," I begged.

"She was too bad a state and she died," she said trying to be strong.

I started crying. I knew it was my entire fault but then I started remembering everything that happened and I remembered when the ambulance came for us to take us to the hospital. I saw my girlfriend dead and then I opened my eyes and started crying but then I started feeling bad and I fainted but this time, I didn't wake up again. But then I woke up but it was in a different place. I saw a light and I followed it and then I saw my girlfriend and I went to talk with her but first I gave her a hug and told her:

"I am so sorry. This is all my fault! I didn't want you die! It is all my fault. I love you. Please forgive me," I said.

"Don't worry. I am good now. I don't feel what I was feeling when the car crashed and now I don't feel pain. If I cut myself, I don't feel anything," she said.

"But I want you to be with me," I said.

"I'll always be in your heart," she said.

"Ok, but I'll miss you so much," I said.

"Me too," she answered.

"Now, can you explain to me why I am watching you if you are... dead?" I asked.

"Because you are at the border of the dead, but you can't die since we can't do this to your mom. Remember that she already lost your brother when he was killed. Please you have to stay with her," she said.

"No, but I want to be with you," I told her.

"In that case, please do this for me and go with her," she declared.

"Alright, I will, but please first take me to see my brother," I asked her.

"I will but you have to promise me that you will go with her and stay all your life with her," she said.

"Fine, as long as you just take me to see my brother," I said.

"Let's go, follow me," she announced.

I followed her and there he was but he was different. He was good without injuries and he was smiling. I ran to hug him but, I didn't say a word. I was too happy but then I told him:

"I have missed you a lot, and mom too," I told him

"Me too, how is mom?" he asked.

"She is fine but how are you?" I asked.

"I am very well," he said, "but you have to go and stay with mom. Please don't leave her alone."

"I will, I will always be with her," I answered

"Sorry for interrupting but you have to leave. You have spent too much time sleeping," my girlfriend told me.

"Ok, but may I ask you for something?" I told her.

"Yes sure, anything you want" she said.

"Please take care of my brother," I told her.

"I will," she said.

She showed me the way out and the last thing I saw was my girlfriend and my brother together saying goodbye and then I saw a light and then I saw my mother crying and I hugged her and told her:

"I love you and I will never leave you alone."
